

Paul Williams

Swan (PAUL WILLIAMS) and The Phantom (WILLIAM FINLEY) confront each other prior to the opening of the Paradise, the ultimate rock palace.

The Phantom (WILLIAM FINLEY) is the mysterious figure who haunts the Paradise, the ultimate rock palace.

The Juicy Fruits (HAROLD OBLONG, ARCHIE HANN and JEFFREY COMANOR), a nostalgia-oriented rock group, perform at the famed Paradise

Beef (GERRIT GRAHAM) is the glitter-rock singer whose performance opens the fabulous Paradise.

Composer Winslow Leach (WILLIAM FINLEY) is a surprise visitor at an audition for background singers to perform his music.

Swan (PAUL WILLIAMS) is the incredibly successful record producer and impresario who runs the Paradise, the ultimate rock palace.

The Phantom (WILLIAM FINLEY), at the console composing his music for the gala opening of the Paradise, the ultimate rock palace.

Phoenix (JESSICA HARPER) is the aspiring songstress who gains stardom at the Paradise, the ultimate rock palace.

Swan (PAUL WILLIAMS) is the incredibly successful record producer and impresario who runs the Paradise, the ultimate rock palace.

Swan (PAUL WILLIAMS) and Phoenix (JESSICA HARPER) on stage for a lavish production number at the opening of the Paradise, the ultimate rock palace.

PHANTOM OF THE Paradise

$3.95

- 12 Beauty And The Beast (Phantom's Theme)
- 20 Faust
- 30 Goodbye, Eddie, Goodbye
- 16 Life At Last
- 48 Old Souls
- 38 Somebody Super Like You
- 44 Special To Me
- 25 The Hell Of It
- 52 Upholstery
- 58 Biography

PHOTOGRAPHS COURTESY OF TWENTIETH CENTURY - FOX FILM CORP.

ORIGINAL SOUNDTRACK RECORDING AVAILABLE
ON A & M RECORDS No. SP-3653

Exclusively Distributed By:
WK Walter Kane & Son, Inc., 351 West 52nd. Street, New York, New York 10019
For: Triangle Music Corp., 555 Palm Springs Mile Hialeah, Florida 33012

175705

BEAUTY AND THE BEAST

(PHANTOM'S THEME)

Words and Music
By PAUL WILLIAMS

Slowly

Am Fmaj7 Am

Fmaj7 Am Am/G Fmaj7

Half a - sleep I hear a voice,
Face to face I greet the cast,
Like a cir-cus on pa - rade,

Am Am/G Fmaj7 Dm

is it on - ly in my mind or is — it some-one set in si-lence we be - gin com-pan - ions in an sel-dom close e - nough to see I wan - der thru an

Am E

call-ing me — some one I failed and left be - hind?
emp-ty room — I taste their vic- tor- y and sin.
an- gry crowd — and won-der what's be-come of me.

CHORUS

A F A

To work it out I let them in, all the good guys and the bad guys that I've been. All the dev-ils that dis-turbed me and the an-gels that de-feat-ed them some-

F A F

E
how, come to- geth - er in me

Am Am/G F Am Am/G Fm7 Fine

now.
8va

Bb F
A tale of beau - ty and the beast I de - fend my soul from those who would ac - cuse me.

Ab G

Bb F
I share the fam - ine and the feast I have

Ab
been the world and felt it turn - ing, seen the jest - er yearn - ing to a - 8va

G Am Am/G
muse me.

F Am Am/G F D. S. al Fine

LIFE AT LAST

Words and Music
By
PAUL WILLIAMS

Moderately Bright

No Chords

Life at last, — sal-u-ta-tions from the oth-er side, —
Life at last, — sit and lis-ten while the fun be-gins, —

(P) 2nd time

2nd time

I can see that you're the dev-ils pride. — Do you re-al-ize that hearts are bro-ken and the bad guys win. — Sit and lis-ten all the

Bbm Bbm/Ab Bbm/Ab Bbm/Gb

all of you do - nat - ed some-thing hor-ri - ble you hat - ed that is cut - ting up is eas - y, and this is - n't for the queas - y or the part of you. — I'm your night — mares com - in' true, — weak of heart. — You had bet - ter start for home —

Gb7 F7

Tacet

— I am — your crime. —
— while there's still time. —

CHORUS

1. 2. Bbm Bbm/Ab

I'm the ev-il that you — cre - a — ted,

Bbm/Ab Bbm/G Gb7

get-tin'hor-ny and damned — frus-trat — ed Bored stiff and I want —

— me a wo-man now. —

INSTRUMENTAL

D. S. al Coda

CODA

Each of you must stop — and try — me, all of you might sat - is - fy — me. SCREAM

SCREAM

SCREAM

FAUST

Words and Music
By PAUL WILLIAMS

Moderato

Db

F

fm etc
Cm

Paul: p 1 step

Em
Cm

1. I was not my-self last night, could-n't set things right with a - pol - o - gies — or
2. I was not my-self last night, — in the morn-ing light — I could see the change was

F maj7
Db maj7

flow - ers.
show - ing.

Em
Cm

Out of place as a cry-in' clown who could on-ly frown and the play went on — for
Like a child who was al-ways poor reach-ing out for more — I could feel the hun - ger

F Db maj7

hours. — grow - ing. —

G
Eb

And as I lived my role —
And as I lost con-trol —

Ab

I swore I'd sell my soul — for one love — who would
I swore I'd sell my soul — for one love — who would

Faust — 2

Dm/C Bbm/Ab

stand by me, — and give me back — the gift — of laugh — sing my songs, — and fill this emp - ti - ness — in - side

C Ab

ter. — One love — who would stand by me. —
me. — One love — who'd sing my song. —

8va-----

F/C Db/Ab

CHORUS Fmaj7
Dbmaj7

And af - ter mak - ing love — we'd] dream a bit of
And lay be-side — me while — we'd]

Fm
Cm

style, we'd dream a bunch of — friends,

Fmaj7
Dbmaj7

dream each - oth - ers smiles, and dream it — nev - er

1. ends. 2. SLOWER TPO F
C

ends. All my dreams are lost and

SLOWER AND DETERMINED

A
F

I can't — sleep, and sleep a - lone — could ease my — mind. — All my — tears — have dried — and

B
G

F C

A F B G

I can't — weep. — Old e - mo - tions may they

F Db Em Cm

rest in peace — and dream, dream a bunch of — friends. —

F Db G C#f

Rest in peace, — and dream, dream it nev-er ends. — (ritard)

THE HELL OF IT

Words and Music by PAUL WILLIAMS

Moderato

Em

Roll on thun - der shine — on light - 'nin', the Loved your - self — 'cause you loved no oth - er, be -

Am

days are long — and the nights — are fright - 'nin', no man's fool — be — no — man's broth - er,

D

noth - ing mat - ters an - y way and that's the hell — we're all born — to die alone — y' - know — that's the hell —

Em Am/E Em Am/E Em

— of it.
— of it.

Win - ter comes and the winds blow to cold - er, well some - Life's a game where they're bound to beat you, and times

Am

— grew wis wis - - er you just grew old - er, and — a trick that can turn to cheat you, and you nev - er lis - tened an - y way and that's the hell — we on - ly waste it an - y way and that's the hell —

D

Em Am/E Em Am/E Em

— of it.
— of it.

Chorus: G

Good for noth - in' bad in bed, —

no - bod - y likes you and you're bet - ter off dead, Good - bye —

Em

— we've all come to say good - bye — good - bye.

G
 Born de - feat - ed died in vain, su - per de - struc - tion you were hooked on pain, and tho'
 B Bm B(add 9) Bm B Bm B(add 9) Bm B
 — your mu - sic lin - gers on — all of us — are glad you're gone..
 E E/D#
 If I — could live — my — life — half as E/D E/C#
 worth - less - ly — as you, —

The musical score for "I'm Convinced" by The Beatles is presented in a standard format. It includes a vocal melody line with lyrics, a piano accompaniment, and guitar parts. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 4/4. The score is divided into several systems, each containing staves for the vocal, piano, and guitar. The lyrics are: "I'm con-vinced that I'd wind_ up burn - ing too." The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and bar lines. It also features chord symbols (C, B, Em) and performance instructions like "D. S. al Coda" and "Repeat and fade". The score is written for a vocal soloist, piano, and guitar.

GOODBYE, EDDIE, GOODBYE

Words and Music
By PAUL WILLIAMS

G

We'll re - mem - ber you for ev - er

Em

C

Ed - die. — Thru the sac - ri - fice — you made we can't be-lieve — the price — you paid — for

Eb

Copyright © 1974 by ALMO MUSIC CORP.
International Copyright Secured Made in U.S.A. All Rights Reserved

Britely

G G/F G/F G/D G G/F

love. —

G/E G/D G

1. Lit - tle Ed - die Mit - ty, born —
2. He was off and fly - ing, times —

Em

— in Jer - sey cit - y, start — ed sing - in' when he was five. — — were real - ly try - ing, Ed - die and his moth - er a - lone. —

C

Nev - er knew his fath - er, moth - er did - n't both - er to Soon a - noth - er mis - ter, soon — a ba - by sis - ter —

Goodbye, Eddie, Goodbye — 2

1. D
 catch his last — name fast — as he — came.

2. D mam - ma kept swing-in' and Ed - die kept sing-in'. Ah —

G ya, — ya ya ya ya, — ya ya ya

C ya, — ya ya ya ya.

G
 Ya, — ya ya ya ya, — ya ya ya

Em
 ya, — ya ya ya ya. — For

G
 love. — for love. — SPOKEN "Now...the tragic story:"

G
 Eddie's sister, Mary Louise,needed an operation.

C D

To get the money, he would have to become an overnight sensation. Eddie believed the American people had wonderful, love giving hearts. His well publicized end, he considered,

Em C

D D.S. al Coda

would send his memorial album to the top of the charts...and it did."

♯ Coda

ya. Good - bye,

good - bye. SPOKEN "When a

G Em

young singer dies, to our shocking surprise, in a plane crash or flashy sports car, he becomes quite well known and the kindness he's shown has made more than one post-mortem star. Well, you did it to Eddie, and 'though it's hard to applaud suicide, you gave all you could give so your sister could live, all Americas choked up inside.

C

you paid for love.

Chords: D, G, Em, C, D, D. A. al, Eb, G, G/F

For love.

Ah

Chords: G/E, G/D, G, G/F, G/E, G/D, Eb, G

SOMEBODY SUPER LIKE YOU

Words and Music
By
PAUL WILLIAMS

Moderately Brite

Am G F G

Am

We need a man — that is sim - ple per - fec - tion, there's
We need a man — that can stand — as a sym - bol and no - thing that's hard - er to find. — sym - bols have got to be tall. —

F

Copyright © 1974 by ALMO MUSIC CORP.
International Copyright Secured Made in U.S.A. All Rights Reserved

Am

Some-one to lead — us, pro - tect us and feed us, and
Some-one with taste — and the tin - i - est waist, — with his

F

help us to make up our minds. —
help would - n't life be a ball. —

Bbm

We need a man — that's so - phis - ti - ca - ted,
If we had fun — he would not re - strain — us,

Ebm

qui - et and strong — and well ed - u - cat - ed.
if we got caught — he would just — ex - plain — us.

Somebody Super Like You — 2

E

Where to go, — what to do, — could it be, —

Am (Am) G

some-bod-y s - su - per like you?

F G Am

G F 1.

2. CHORUS Bb

We pledge al - le - giance to — his grace-ful-ness — and charm-ing man - ners. With a voice that's both sides' choice he'll bring us to our knees — in ad - mir - a - tion. He is king — of all — who see and hear — his per-fect pitch and more sur-pris - es.

F Ab

G

Bb F

When all time is come — a stal - li - on ris - es.

D. S. al Coda

Ris - es,

Coda

ris - es,

ris - es.

Somebody Super Like You — 6

VERSE 3:

We need a man with a head on his shoulders,
a nose that is simply divine.

Hollywood smile and a perfect profile and with eyes that would sparkle and shine.

Long flowing hair for the crowning glory,
there'd be a man who could tell our story.

Where to go what to do
Could it be somebody super like you.

SPECIAL TO ME

Words and Music
By
PAUL WILLIAMS

Moderately Brite

B

Caught up in — your wheel — in' deal — in', you've Mem - ry on - ly takes po - ses - sion, un -

F#7

E

got no time — left for sim - ple feel - in', I thought I knew — you but til your pipe — dreams be - come ob - ses - sions, you scare me ba - by and

F#7

B

I did - n't know — you at all.
we should have no - thing to fear.

B

F#7

Trapped in - side - your world — of wor - ry, you miss so much when you al -
I'm no child - but I can't help won - d'rin', it seems like some - kind of spell -

E

F#7

ways hur - ry, well slow down ba - by you'll on - ly get hurt if you — — you're un - der, you're list' - nin' ba - by but some - how you don't real - ly —

CHORUS

E

— fall. —
— hear. —

Well you told me one time that you'd

G#m

be some- bo - dy, that you weren't work-in' just to sur-vive. — But you're

C B

work-in' so hard that you don't ev - en know you're a - live. —

Em

Work-in' so hard to be some-bod-y spec-ial, not work-ing just to sur-vive. Well you're spec-ial to me — babe but what I don't see — babe is where [you we go once [you we ar - rive.

A7 Bb

A

G#m

where [we you go once [we you ar - rive.

1. 2. B

G#m Repeat and Fade

OLD SOULS

Words and Music by PAUL WILLIAMS

Slowly Am
Cm Ab Fm Cm Ab

Cm(add 2) Ab(add 2)

Our love is an old love ba - by, it's

Cm(add 2) Ab(add 2)

old - er than all our years, I have seen in strange young eyes fam - i - lar tears. We're

Fm G

Copyright © 1974 by ALMO MUSIC CORP.
International Copyright Secured Made in U.S.A. All Rights Reserved

Cm(add 2) Ab(add 2)

old souls in a new life ba - by, you gave us a new our love is a strong love ba - by, we give it

Cm(add 2) Ab(add 2)

life to live and learn. Some time to all and so re - ceive. And so with touch old friends and still re - turn.

Fm G

emp - ty arms we must still be - lieve.

Chorus: Cm Cm/Bb Cm/Bb Cm/A

Our paths have crossed and part - ed, this love af - fair was start - ed long, long a - go.

Ab G

Cm Cm/Bb Cm/Bb Cm/A

This love sur-vives the a - ges, in it's sto - ry lies our pag - es,

Ab G D. S. al Coda

fill them up may ours turn slow. Oh

Coda Cm Cm/Bb Cm/Bb Cm/A

All souls last for - ev - er, so we need nev - er fear goodbye.

Ab A

C# Bb E#m Dm

A kiss, when I must go, no

D#m Cm G# F

tears, in time we kiss hel -

C# Bb

lo.

UPHOLSTERY

Words and Music by PAUL WILLIAMS

Moderately bright
Bb

Car-buer - a - tors man, that's what life is all a - bout.

That's what life is all a - bout, that's what life is all a - bout, that's what life is all a - bout.

I was not my - self last night, lost a fight my wood - y bare - ly
I was not my - self last night, ran a light with-out my reg - is - run - ning. _____

tra - tion. _____

By a dude I should have beat, and Where the cops were bound to see, and

E \flat Dm7

on the street a blow like that is stun - ning.
you know me all read - y on pro - ba - tion.

E \flat

I fi - n'ly lost con-trol and tore my tuck - 'n' - roll. Up -
I wound up on pa - role I tore my tuck - 'n' - roll. Up -

F7

Chorus: B \flat Cm7/B \flat
hol - ster-y_ where my ba - by sits up close to me,

that's sup - posed to be _____ what our life is all a - bout.

B \flat

Up - hol - ster - y where my ba - by sits up

B \flat

close to me, that's sup - posed to be _____

Cm7/B \flat

what our life is all a - bout.

B \flat Cm7/B \flat $\text{C}\flat$ B \flat

Of all life's mys - ter - ies the

E \flat maj7

great - est one I've seen, my short runs

Dm7 E \flat maj7

bet - ter when it's clean.

A D. S. al $\text{C}\flat$ Coda

Coda

Up - hol - ster - y

B \flat B \flat

where my ba - by sits up close to me,

Cm7/B \flat

that's sup - posed to be what our life is all a - bout. Up -

B \flat Repeat and fade out

Biography

PHANTOM OF THE PARADISE

by Gerrit Graham

Just a minute there, buster/bustress! This isn't just another soundtrack album; it's the soundtrack of Brian De Palma's Phantom of the Paradise, and it's different from what you're used to in the way of movie soundtracks. For one thing, the selections on the album are all songs, genuine rock & roll ditties such as you might (and, with luck, will) hear on the radio. No nebulous mood music, no weirdo 17-second filler bits. For another thing, all the songs were written by the tiny-but-beloved Paul Williams (who also stars in the movie). Paul is best known, of course, for the million-sellers others have had with his songs: the Carpenters' "Rainy Days and Mondays" and "We've Only Just Begun," Three Dog Night's "Just An Old Fashioned Love Song." But Paul is no stranger to the cinematic side of music-making, having scored Cinderella Liberty and The ABC Movie of the Week three times. (Actually, he's no stranger to the cinema, period—he was in The Chase with Brando, he was the warped ten-year-old rocket freak who shot people's dead poodles into eternal orbit in The Loved One, and he played the orangutan war counselor, Virgil, in Battle for the Planet of the Apes.) The songs he's written for Phantom of the Paradise range from Fifties rock 'n' roll through surf-tunes, lush ballads, and pop-rock, to the metallic glitz-blasts of the Seventies. The tracks were laid by Paul's band—Art Munson, guitar; Gary "Boom Boom" Mallaber, drums; Colin Cameron, bass; and David Garland, sax and keyboards—with studio help from Craig George, Mike Melvoin, and Tom Scott. The lead vocals are handled for the most part by the actors who sing the songs in the film.

Now let's get an idea of what's going on here:

The Story

Brilliant-but-naive young composer Winslow Leach writes brilliant-but-unwieldy rock cantata based on Faust, the brilliant-but-crazy magician who sold his soul to Old Nick. Brilliant-but-evil rock impresario Swan cons young composer out of his music, transforms it into boffo Top-40 hits, and uses the same to open new rock mecca, the Paradise, after setting Winslow up for a stretch in the slams. Winslow breaks out and trashes the warehouse of Death Records, Swan's label, permanently disfiguring himself in the process by falling into a record press. He turns phantom, replete with bizarre outfit, and sets out to trash the Paradise. Swan makes him a deal: "Lay off the Paradise, and your brilliant-but-innocent girlfriend, Phoenix, can sing the lead role." Another trick, of course—Swan signs brilliant-but-peculiar glitter queen Beef to sing the lead. The Phantom catches the drift and gets back into his trash bag, leading up to a flaming debacle of a finale during which many Waterloos are met.

That's only the barest skeleton of the plot, which is fleshed out with plenty of hairy turns and lots of funny stuff which must be seen to be appreciated/believed.

The Songs

"Goodbye, Eddie, Goodbye," done in letter-perfect Fifties style by Swan's latest chart-busting creation, the Juicy Fruits, opens the film in a club in which Winslow Leach, in the break between Juicy Fruits sets, sings and plays . . .

"Faust," the title song of his rock cantata. No one listens but Swan, whose henchman doubletalks Winslow out of the score. Swan reworks the song into . . .

"Upholstery," a surf revival, for which the Juicy Fruits have become the Beach Bums. Winslow, skulking around the Paradise, hears this travesty and goes berserk. Swan makes the deal to let Phoenix sing, after she auditions with . . .

"Special to Me."

"Phantom's Theme (Beauty and The Beast)" — does that voice sound familiar? It's Paul singing, but in the film it's the pseudo-voice he creates for Winslow (whose tubes were messed up in that industrial mishap), so Winslow can rewrite the cantata, which finally gets under way with . . .

"Somebody Super Like You." Further perverting Winslow's concept, Swan transmogrifies the Juicy Fruits/Beach Bums into the Undeads, who squirm their way through this decadent plea, leading up to . . .

"Life at Last," a thunder-footed distorto-rocker sung by Beef, the very sight of whom brings Winslow howling out of the catacombs in an orgiastic frenzy of destruction. With the place in shambles and the crowd screaming for more, Swan's thugs shove Phoenix on stage to sing . . .

"Old Souls," and needless to say she wows 'em. Swan signs her body and soul while the Phantom plots his next move — to find out what it is, see the movie, which closes with . . .

"The Hell of It," a perfect valedictory for this tragic histoire.

The Singers

Paul Williams (Swan) we've covered; hear him on A&M releases, Just An Old Fashioned Love Song, Life Goes On, Here Comes Inspiration and the new A Little Bit of Love.

William Finley (Winslow Leach, the Phantom) is a veteran of the New York avant-garde theatre circuit, having worked with and created material for the Performance Group, the Open Theatre, and the La Mama E.T.C. His association with Brian De Palma has covered many projects, the most recent (previous to Phantom of the Paradise) being his superbly creepy performance in Sisters.

Jessica Harper (Phoenix) was featured in "Dr. Selavy's Magic Theatre" in New York, and appears on the album of that show. She's worked on both TV and film, and is now set for a juicy part in Woody Allen's latest extravaganza, in which, she says, she "gets to be funny."

Archie Hahn (Juicy Fruits/Beach Bums/Undeads): Archie worked in the L.A. wing of the improvisational revue the Committee, and in National Lampoon's "Lemmings" in New York. He likes to consider himself "just another guy workin' hard to become an institution." That's him singing "Goodbye, Eddie, Goodbye."

Harold Oblong (JF/BB/U) also saw action in the Committee, and is well remembered for his nasty job on Donovan in "Lemmings." He choreographed the group numbers in the film and sings "Somebody Super Like You." Usually thought of as shy and retiring, he has an ego the size of a house.

Jeffery Comanor (JF/BB/U) was once signed by Brian Epstein, wrote a lot of B-sides for The Fifth Dimension, and two songs for Midnight Cowboy, has collaborated with Shel Silverstein, and has recorded for Vanguard, A&M, and currently Epic, with one eponymously titled album out now, and another on the way, which he hopes will be called Thanks For The Advance, Suckers.

Ray Kennedy (the voice of Beef, played in the film by Gerrit Graham) was at one time an A&M artist, and is now recording for Columbia. He has written for the Beach Boys and Jeff Beck, and played sax with Gerry Mulligan, Little Richard, Otis Redding, and Wilson Pickett.

The Big Shots

Brian De Palma's directing career began when he and William Finley were among the few men attending Sarah Lawrence. His best-known films are Greetings, Hi Mom, Get to Know Your Rabbit, and Sisters; among his discoveries are Allen Garfield and Robert De Niro.

Edward R. Pressman, with his partner, Paul Williams (different fella), has produced The Revolutionary, Sisters, and Badlands. They're currently working on The Secret Life of Plants.

Paul Williams

